Father's Corner: Grandparents: Tuesday, July 26th, is the Feast Day of Sts. Joachim & Anne, the parents of the Virgin Mary and Grandparents of Jesus; therefore, I have chosen to write about Grandparents. There is no mention of the parents of the Virgin Mary in the Bible. What we know of them comes from Catholic legend and the apocryphal gospel of James. This writing says that Mary was promised to Joachim and Anne by an angel. While scholars can debate about these two saints, I think that we can agree that they were good, faithful parents of the Virgin Mary and raised her with love and devotion to God.

We do not know if Jesus knew them. But their influence impacted and guided him either directly or through Mary.

This Feast Day is a call to us to reflect on our Grandparents and families. I knew all four of my Grandparents and one of my Great Grandmothers. Many raised here on the Prairie know, or knew their Grandparents. Have you ever sat down with them and learned their history? Have you recorded any of their stories about their parents or Grandparents? Many years ago, when I was in High School, I sat with my Grandfather and recorded him talking about his life and stories he learned from his parents in Holland. Another of my family legends is that some of my Mother's ancestors escaped religious persecution in a hot air balloon which crash landed in Germany in the 1700's and that is how the family moved to here from Germany.

What are your family stories? Those of you who are Grandparents, what examples of living our faith are you passing on to your grandchildren? Are you teaching them any private or popular devotions? Are you telling them stories not only of your life but of your grandparents? Have you taken time to write or record any of the stories of your ancestors so that future generations may know them? So often by the time children or grandchildren become interested in family history, those who knew the history have passed on and the knowledge is lost.

Why go to Mass? 10 of many reasons why...

- 1) St. John Vianney said that if we truly understood the value of the Mass we would die of joy.
- 2) St. Padre Pio said, "Every holy Mass, heard with devotion, produces marvelous effects in our soul and we receive abundant graces."
- 3) We receive Forgiveness. Holy Mass is the most powerful atonement for our sins.
- 4) We receive Guidance. Readings and homily offer spiritual direction.
- 5) We Pray...amidst a multitude of holy angels who are present with reverential awe.
- 6) We Forgive. When we join in the Lord's Prayer we promise God that we will forgive others as He has forgiven us.
- 7) We witness the Consecration of Bread & Wine changed into the Body & Blood of Jesus Christ. When we receive Communion we receive Jesus.
- 8) We share in the Peace of Christ.
- 9) We receive a special Blessing...we are commissioned to spread the peace & love of the Lord.
- 10) Mass offer Souls in Purgatory the greatest relief.

"What Pro-Populo Mass is: Church law mandates that both diocesan bishops and parish priests regularly offer certain Masses pro-populo, or, "for the people". for whom they are spiritually responsible. ... The obligation of the Parish Priest to celebrate Mass for the people of his parish is fundamentally parallel to that of the bishop for the people of his diocese. Canon 534.1 states that the parish priest is required to say a Mass pro-populo on Sunday ..."

The 6th annual YWCA Idaho County Auction will be held September 18th at the Cottonwood Community Hall in Cottonwood, Idaho. The live auction will start at 2 PM; Lunch will be served at 12:00 PM. There will also be a silent auction from 12-3pm.

100% of the monies stay with our Idaho County YWCA administrator Kristi Beckstead who provides services to the victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. The services she provides are numerous but not limited to: temporary housing, household necessities, workbooks for the classes she teaches, transportation, gas cards, clothing, assistance with court hearings and bus tickets (if they are heading back to family away from here). She also provides counseling and job searches to get the victims back on their feet. The mission is to help these victims become confident people and know that this situation does not define them and they do not have to be victims any more.

If you would like to make a monetary donation or donate an item please contact Colleen Sonnen- chairperson 208-962-7049. We are especially looking for handcrafted items.
