And Holy Cross Chapel

We are many parts, we are all one body.

Please be praying for a Religious each week who is from this area or who has served in this area. This week please pray for Father Mark Uhlenkott.

Daily the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Prayed each day 3:30 pm St. Mary's Church.

Father's Corner: As I was walking along the beach listening to the pounding of the waves and watching them crest near the edge several times a minute and then flowing on and covering the beach and then recede, trying endlessly to move and shape the sand. I reflected on the power of God. Water covers something like 71% of the planet and every second of every day the water tries to shape and form the land. Even after all of these centuries, the land is still here, stubbornly resisting the water.

God is endless; He is all powerful; our entire universe was just a thought in His mind. God could at any time do away with all evil, all problems. He could wipe them all out easier than He can keep them here. So why doesn't He?

God created humanity so that we could choose to love and live in the fullness of His creation. In order to enable us to really love, then we have to have the freedom to make the choice to love Him or not to love. The freedom to live in goodness or to live in evil. If God took away our choice to choose evil, sin; then we could never choose goodness, true love.

Like the ocean waves washing up on the sand and trying to shape it, God works endlessly to shape us, to guide us, and to encourage us towards goodness and life. But like the sand on the shore, we still have the power to resist, or to flow with His power and guidance; to choose goodness and love. What do you choose?

The world, the devil, and our passions have stripped and wounded us. Jesus, who, moved by compassion for our state brought us help. With infinite love Jesus bends over our open wounds and cures them with the oil and wine of His grace. ... We should go to Mass to meet Jesus, to invoke and receive his sanctifying grace. ... When He comes to us in Holy Communion He heals our wounds and strengthens us.

~Father Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen O.C.D.

The 6th annual YWCA Idaho County Auction will be held September 18th at the Cottonwood Community Hall in Cottonwood, Idaho. The live auction will start at 2 PM; Lunch will be served at 12:00 PM. There will also be a silent auction from 12-3pm.

100% of the monies stay with our Idaho County YWCA administrator Kristi Beckstead who provides services to the victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. The services she provides are numerous but not limited to: temporary housing, household necessities, workbooks for the classes she teaches, transportation, gas cards, clothing, assistance with court hearings and bus tickets (if they are heading back to family away from here). She also provides counseling and job searches to get the victims back on their feet. The mission is to help these victims become confident people and know that this situation does not define them and they do not have to be victims any more.

If you would like to make a monetary donation or donate an item please contact Colleen Sonnen- chairperson 208-962-7049. We are especially looking for handcrafted items.
