Father's Corner:

The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church: Part 7

The celebration of the Eucharist presupposes that communion between the worshipper and God and church already exist. The Bishops repeated what they said in 2006, "If a Catholic in his or her personal or professional life were knowingly and obstinately to reject the defined doctrines of the Church, or knowingly and obstinately to repudiate her definitive teachings on moral issues, however, he or she would seriously diminish his or her communion with the Church. Reception of Holy Communion in such a situation would not accord with the nature of the Eucharistic celebration, so that he or she should refrain." Reception of Holy Communion under these conditions is also going to create scandal for others.

The judgement, if a person is in a state of Grace, so they can receive Holy Communion, belongs to the person involved. Further, it is the task of the Diocesan Bishop to work to remedy situations involving public actions that are in variance with the visible communion with the Church.

Before we receive Holy Communion, each of us should examine our conscience to make sure we are properly disposed to receive the Eucharist. If not, do not despair. Jesus in His mercy gave us a remedy: The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. Whenever we sin, we have the opportunity to recover the gift of sanctifying grace and to be restored into full communion with God and the Church.

Be Not Afraid! Be An Apostle! There is no doubt that we are in a post-Christian culture! What does that mean for us? Come and see on Monday, October 17th at St. Mary's Catholic Church. This is the memorial of St. Ignatius of Antioch, who wrote, "Beg for me the courage and endurance not only to speak but also to will what is right, so that I may not only be called a Christian, but prove myself to be one." Join us for praise with Michael Rehder at 7:00pm, a talk and testimony at 7:30 to stir into flame the gift God has given us (2 Tim. 1:6), and snacks and visiting from 8:00 until your family! Hosted by Grow in the Spirit.
