Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed daily at St. Mary's Church at 3:30 pm. Join us!

Father's Corner... St. Maximilian Kolbe, Priest and Martyr: His feast day is August 14th and he is the Patron of drug addicts, prisoners, family and the pro-life movement. Born January 8, 1894, in Poland and killed on August 14, 1941 in Germany in death Camp of Auschwitz during World War II.

He was active in promoting the Immaculate Virgin Mary and is known as the Apostle of the Consecration to Mary. When he was 12 he had a vision of the Virgin Mary. He writes "That night I asked the Mother of God what was to become of me? Then she came holding two crowns, one white, the other red. She asked me if I was willing to accept either of these crowns. The white one meant that I should persevere in purity, and the red that I should become a martyr. I said that I would accept them both."

The next year he joined the Conventual Franciscans. He took the religious name, Maximilian. He earned a doctorate in philosophy from the Pontifical Gregorian University and then a doctorate in theology. St. Maximilian Kolbe organized the "Militia Immaculata" (Army of the Immaculate One). His goal was to work for the conversion of sinners and enemies of the Church, specifically, the Freemasons and he would do so with the intercession of Mary.

In 1918, he was ordained a priest and continued his work of promoting Mary throughout Poland. Over several years Kolbe took on publishing. He founded a monthly periodical "Rycerz Niepokalanej" (Knight of the Immaculate). He also operated a religious publishing press and founded a new Conventual Franciscan monastery at Niepokalanow, which became a major religious publishing center. He also founded monasteries in both Japan and India.

In 1936, Maximilian Kolbe's poor health forced him to return home to Poland and once the WWII invasion by Germany began, he became one of the only brothers to remain in the monastery. He opened up a temporary hospital to aid those in need. When his town was captured he was sent to prison but released three months later.

Maximilian Kolbe refused to sign a document that would recognize him as a German citizen with his German ancestry and continued to work in his monastery, providing shelter for refugees - including hiding 2,000 Jews from German persecution. After receiving permission to continue his religious publishing, Kolbe's monastery acted as a publishing house again and issued many anti-Nazi German publications.

On February 17, 1941, the monastery was shut down and Kolbe was arrested by the German Gestapo and taken to the Pawiak prison. Three months later he was transferred to Auschwitz.

 Never abandoning his priesthood, Kobe was the victim of severe violence and harassment. Toward the end of his second month in Auschwitz men were chosen to face death by starvation to warn against escapes. Kolbe was not chosen but volunteered to take the place of a man with a family. It is said during the last days of his life he led prayers to Our Lady with the prisoners and remained calm. He was the last of the group to remain alive, after two weeks of dehydration and starvation. The guards gave him a lethal injection of carbolic acid. The stories tell that he raised his left arm and calmly awaited death.

St. Maximilian Kolbe died on August 14th and his remains were cremated on August 15th, the Feast Day of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

St. Maximilian Kolbe has always been special to me. Due to his willingness to sacrifice for another person and for the fact that my cousins' Grandparents, in Holland, were also killed at Auschwitz.

CATHOLIC YOUTUBE CHANNEL FILMING EPISODE at Tri-Parish Location
Aug 5 & 6 and Aug 12 & 13

MassTransit - a Catholic lay apostolate, will be in our community filming an episode that will appear on a YouTube channel of the same name.

MassTransit is owned and operated by Gordon and Sandy Crow. They live full time out of their motorhome, traveling the country to produce episodes featuring Catholic parishes and other church-related videos. The mission of MassTransit is to show the beauty of the Roman Catholic Church by showing the beauty of Catholic parishes and parishioners.

The Crows still call Coeur d'Alene home. Gordon and Sandy met and married there in the 1980's. Gordon is a former Idaho State Senator, and Sandy worked in several capacities in Kootenai County government.

MassTransit does not charge a fee to parishes or ministries to create these productions. They do ask for freewill (second) offerings after an episode has premiered.

"Working for freewill offerings was suggested to us as a way to live by faith," Gordon said. "Best of all, it allows any Catholic parish or ministry, regardless of size or finances, to invite MassTransit to tell their story."

The episode featuring the Tri-Parish Community will premiere sometime in the fall/winter of 2023. Parishioners will be notified of the premier date once it is scheduled. The freewill (second) offering will be collected at Mass one or two weeks following the premiere.
