Father's Corner: Our Lady of Lourdes, part 2.

In one of the apparitions, Bernadette said the Lady asked her to dig in the ground and drink from the spring she found there. This made her disheveled and some of her supporters were dismayed, but his act revealed the stream that sprung up to produce a steady stream of water that soon became a focal point for pilgrimages. Although it was muddy at first the stream became increasingly clean. As the word spread, this water was given to medical patients of all kinds, and many reports of miraculous cures followed.

Then on the 25th of March, 1858, Bernadette said the Lady told her, "I am the Immaculate Conception" ("que soy era immaculada concepciou'). Bernadette being young and mostly uneducated, did know what Conception meant but not what the word "Immaculate" meant. Remember that the Pope had only declared the Feast and Doctrine of the Immaculate Conception on December 8, 1854, and the declaration had not made it to Lourdes yet. On Easter Sunday, 7 April, her examining doctor stated that Bernadette Soubirous, in ecstasy was observed to have held her hands over a lit candle without sustaining harm. On 16 July, Bernadette Soubirous went for the last time to the Grotto. "I have never seen her so beautiful before," she stated.

On 18 January 1860 the local bishop finally declared that "The Virgin Mary did appear indeed to Bernadette Soubirous." Then in 1863, Joseph-Hughes Fabisch was charged to create a statue of the Virgin according to Soubirous' description. The work was placed in the Grotto and solemnly dedicated on 4 April 1864 in the presence of 20,000 pilgrims.

Bernadette described the apparitions as a "jeune fille" ("young girl") of about 14-15 years old; and that the apparition was not taller than herself. At 1.40 metres (4 ft 7 in) tall, Bernadette was diminutive even by the standards of other poorly-nourished children. Bernadette described the Lady in the apparition as dressed in a flowing white robe, with a blue sash around her waist. This was the uniform of the religious group called the Children of Mary, which, on account of her poverty, Soubirous was not permitted to join (although she was admitted after the apparitions).

Question of the Week: When was the Diocese of Boise established and who was the first Bishop? Bishop Louis Lootens was first Bishop of the Vicar-Apostolic of Idaho, March 3, 1868. Bishop Alphonse Glorieux was appointed Vicar-Apostolic of Idaho on February 27, 1885 and Appointed the First Bishop of Boise on August 26, 1893, when the Vicariate became the Diocese of Boise. Father Paul Wauder

From the Diocese: Bishop Christensen is asking all parishes to participate in the "Called by Name" Campaign. The "Called by Name" Sunday TODAY. If you know a young man, ages 15-30ish, who you think may have a calling by God to become a priest; please write their name/names down on the card that is being provided. The young man will then be invited by the Diocese to think and pray about it and if they wish to join in some discernment events and activities put on by the Diocese. Thank you for your help with this important campaign. idahovocation.com/called

Thank you to all who donated to the Warmth and Light Fundraiser for Assumption Church. Our goal, after Avista rebates, was to raise $27,732.00 to cover the cost of Lights and New Furnace. We are only short $1,100.00 of reaching the full amount. Many blessings to all.

LARGE COLLECTION of bowls, pans and dishes are accumulating at Cottonwood Community Hall following recent funerals. PLEASE stop in and pick yours up. Lynn at City Hall will let you into the hall kitchen - she is there 9 am-4 pm; except for lunch hour 1-2 pm. Thank you!

Idaho Catholic Appeal Drive (ICA) formerly known as the DDP will start this year in March. Each year the Bishop asks each of the more than 200,000 Catholics living in Idaho to participate in the Appeal. He asks us to support the ongoing ministries of the Church that provide educational, pastoral, and charitable outreach to those living in our Diocese. The ICA provides about 70% of the support needed to fund the diocesan ministries each year. Thank you for your support.

Are you intrigued by the Encounter School of Healing, but are unsure about signing up? Come join us anyway!

Your help is needed to provide snacks, a soup luncheon, and dinner on Saturday, March 8. We have several cooks lined up but are looking for additional hands to serve, additional food and financial donations. If you feel the excitement, we challenge you to say YES and join us. Please call Della Gehring at 451-4067 or Colleen Sonnen at 962-7049. Come encounter the Holy Spirit fully alive in our community.
