Father's Corner: DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
The Divine Mercy is a devotion practice to the merciful love of God and the desire to let that love and mercy flow through our own heart and out to all those in need of God's Mercy. This devotion came from Saint Mary Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938). Saint Mary Faustina reported having several visions of Jesus and conversations with Jesus and she wrote these down in her diary that was later published as a book "Diary: Divine Mercy in My Soul."

The Devotion has three main themes: 1) to ask for and obtain the mercy of God; 2) to trust in Christ's abundant mercy; 3) and most important is to show mercy to others and to act as a conduit of God's mercy towards them. Saint Faustina stated that Jesus told her: "Every soul believing and trusting in My Mercy will obtain it." Also Jesus told her, "Call upon My mercy on behalf of sinners." Faustina wrote that Jesus told her, "I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love of Me," and He explained that there are three ways of exercising mercy toward your neighbor: 1) by deed; 2) by word; 3) by prayer. Faustina wrote that in her visions Jesus instructed her that the Feast of Divine Mercy (the Sunday after Easter) be preceded by a Divine Mercy Novena which would begin on Good Friday and conclude on Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday was instituted by Pope Saint John Paul II and is celebrated the Sunday after Easter each year.

Father Paul Wander

A BLESSED AND JOYFULL EASTER SEASON!
JESUS IS RISEN! ALLELUIA!

Question of the Week: Saved by Faith or works or what?
We are saved by Jesus' Sacrifice and Resurrection. We open ourselves to His gift of Salvation by having Faith in Him. Good works are how we know if we have faith. If we have faith - then we must have good works. It is not optional or a choice. If you are alive, you will breathe, it is not optional or a choice. If you have faith, you will have good works.

Stewardship: “...Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (John 20:21)

Peace - the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies.” Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them, visit them.

“When something bad happens you have three choices. You can either let it define you, let it destroy you, or you can let it strengthen you.”

Happy Birthday!
