July 27, 2025 - Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

And Holy Cross Chapel

Pray each week for a religious who is from this area or who has served in this area. This week we ask you to pray for: Sister Esther Valasquez. Sister Esther was born in Gooding and moved to Rupert. She was taught by the Benedictine Sisters and soon joined them. She currently is on mission in Spokane with assisted living residents. Sister Esther was selected for this work because of her calm demeanor. Through her interactions with assisted living residents as well as the people she encounters in her volunteer work at the Food Bank, and her recent work at St. Joseph Family Center, and her former parish of Our Lady of Fatima. People often tell Sister Esther that she radiates peace.

Pray for Peace. Pray for America

The Rosary is prayed every morning at 7:30 am at St. Mary's except on Sunday. Please join us.

Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed daily at St. Mary's Church at 3:30 pm. Join us each day or occasionally.

Baptism: Preparation for Parents and Godparents is required prior to Baptism. Classes and online classes are available. Please contact Tri-Parish Office to register.

Father's Corner...

Angel, Lion, Ox and Eagle

These are how the Four Evangelists are frequently depicted in art.
Saint Matthew: Man/Angel
Saint Mark: Lion
Saint Luke: Ox
Saint John: Eagle

Saint Jerome (342-420) is the one who gave us these pairings. Saint Gregory the Great (600) corroborated St. Jerome's interpretation. The Symbols themselves come from the book of Ezekiel, who had a vision of God in the midst of these four creatures. The Church Fathers interpreted this as a foreshadowing of the four Gospels. We meet the four creatures again in the 4th chapter of St. John's Apocalypse: "... the first living creature like a Lion, the second living creature like an Ox, the third living creature with the face of a Man, and the fourth living creature like a flying Eagle ..."

Saint Matthew's symbol is a Man because he begins his Gospel with Christ's human genealogy, focusing on Christ the Man.

Saint Mark is represented by a Lion because his Gospel starts off with a roar. Right away in the first chapter we are confronted with the fiery words of St. John the Baptist, the "voice of one crying in the wilderness."

Saint Luke is accompanied by an Ox, an animal of sacrifice. This is because the first event he recounts is the apparition of the Angel Gabriel to Zechariah, the father of St. John the Baptist. Zachariah, a priest, is offering sacrifice to God in the temple when St. Gabriel appears to announce the impending birth of St. John the Baptist.

Saint John's companion is an Eagle because in his Gospel Saint John "soars" above earthly events to contemplate the Divinity of Christ. His narrative begins with these sublime words: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

Question of the Week: “How many times in the Gospels does Mary speak?” Mary only speaks 7 times. Each of these is filled with meaning and sums up some essential aspect of Mary’s humility, personality, and religious function. (1) “How can this be since I have no relations with man?” Lk1:34 - virginal reserve. (2) “I am the handmaid of the Lord.” Lk 1:38 - zealous service. (3) “May it be done to me according to your word.” Lk 1:38 - faithful obedience. (4) “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord” Lk 1:46-55 - joyful praise. (5) “Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great concern” Lk 2:48 - authoritative gentleness. (6) “They have no wine.” Jn 2:3 - tender charity. (7) “Do whatever he tells you.” Jn 2:5 - firm faith.
