Father's Corner...
What is Private Revelation and what is its value?

All public revelation ended with the death of the last Apostle. Private revelation is given to individuals to help them and others to live the faith. Private Revelation is not part of the deposit of faith and does not have to be believed.

Private Revelations can NOT surpass, correct or change the definitive Revelation which is Christ.

Private Revelations are like crutches or canes that help a person walk. Private revelations help people to have faith and to live their faith. The Magisterium of the Church, the Bishops and Pope, have the duty of evaluating private revelations.

Some examples of private revelations are: A person is praying for discernment on what they should do and they get the feeling that God is telling them to do this. Another example is if you are praying in a charismatic group or with someone involved in the Encounter Movement, like what we had here a year ago, and someone gets a Prophetic Word for you.

The best-known and more famous type of Private Revelations are the different apparitions that have occurred throughout history. The Appearances of the Virgin Mary at Lourdes, Fatima, Medjugorje, Our Lady of Guadalupe, to name the most famous ones. And the apparitions of Jesus through out history like to Sister Faustina giving the Divine Mercy prayers.

These are all considered private revelations. Even though several of the different Popes have acknowledged them and said they think and believe they are real, they are still private revelations and you do NOT have to believe them. Private Revelations are given to call and guide us in living our faith.

Father Paul Wand'

Please pray for the response of the soul of Father Lyle Konen who died Friday morning, August 8th at the age of 94 after 69 years of faithful service. His funeral will be in St. James Cathedral, Seattle, Washington, on Friday, August 22nd.

Thank you to these Parish Council members who have served their term: Katrina Geis for Assumption, Kevin Karel for St. Anthony, and Mark Gehring for St. Mary's. Elections for new Parish Council members is supposed to take place in July. Next weekend we will put the ballots out in the entrances to allow everyone to nominate someone you think would be a good member for our Tri-Parish Council. Thank you.

Question of the Week: "How are Tradition and Sacred Scripture connected?" Tradition and Sacred Scripture are bound together and communicate with each other. Each of them makes present and fruitful the mystery of Christ. They come from the same divine well-spring and together make up the one sacred deposit of faith from which the Church derives her certainty about revelation.

Stewardship . . .“Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.” Luke 12:51
Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don’t want to cause turmoil However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. You need to form your conscience; take a stance in life, marriage, and religious liberty.

“If we could comprehend all the good things contained in Holy Communion, nothing more would be wanting to content the heart of man.” ~St. John Vianney
