And Holy Cross Chapel

Pray each week for a religious who is from this area or who has served in this area. This week we ask you to pray for: Sister Teresa Jackson. Sister Teresa grew up in the San Francisco Bay area. She converted to the Catholic Faith after attending a summer course in Catechetics, where she was amazed at the richness of sacramental theology. More classes and she attended her first Mass, it was the unknown that she had been searching for. Shortly after entering the Church through RCIA in 1992, Sister Teresa began having persistent thoughts about religious life. Sister Teresa is currently the prioress of the Monastery of St. Gertrude.

Pray for Peace. Pray for America

The Rosary is prayed EVERY morning at St. Mary's; Sunday at 6:30 am; the rest of the week at 7:30 am.

Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed daily at St. Mary's Church at 3:30 pm. Join us each day or occasionally.

Preparation for Sacraments.

Baptism: Preparation for Parents and Godparents is required prior to Baptism. Classes and online classes are available. Please contact Tri-Parish Office to register.
Marriage: The engaged couple needs to contact the parish priest 6 months prior to the proposed wedding
New to the Parish: Please call 208-962-3214

Father's Corner... "St. Francis de Sales"

Saturday, January 24th, we will celebrate St. Francis de Sales who was a Bishop and Doctor of the Church. He was born on August 21, 1567 at the Chateau de Sales near Geneva, Switzerland to a noble family. He always felt that he was called to be a priest, but his father had a different idea. Francis attended the University of Paris and the University of Padua from which he received his doctorate in law. He also studied fencing and riding.

God made His will very clear to Francis in a series of events each ending with his sword and scabbard resting on the ground in a Cross shape. Francis was ordained to the priesthood by the Bishop of Geneva. During the Protestant Reformation Francis lead an expedition to the Calvinist to try to bring them back to the Catholic Church. For three years he worked with doors being slammed in his face, having rocks thrown at him, and enduring the bitter winters, his feet froze so badly that they bled as he walked through the snow.

Since people would not talk to him he started writing religious pamphlets explaining the Catholic Faith and slipped them under doors. This is the first record of religious tracts being used to explain the Catholic Faith to those who had fallen away from the Church. By the time Francis returned home he had brought 40,000 people to the Catholic Church.

Francis became the Bishop of Geneva in 1602. A few years later he became the spiritual director of St. Jane de Chantal. Then in 1610 he formed a new religious community, the Order of Visitation. Francis was known for his preaching, visiting, and instructing people in the faith.

Francis stressed that every Christian was called to holiness and sanctity within their own state in life. This laid the groundwork for what the Second Vatican Council would teach on what is now called "the universal call to holiness," as Jesus and the early Church taught that every Baptized Christian, not just priests and those in religious life, is called to sanctity, to be more like Jesus Christ.

He taught that Christian marriage and family life is itself a call to holiness. His most famous book: INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE was written for ordinary lay people to read. He taught that the key to love God is prayer. For busy people he advised "retire at various times into solitude of your own heart, even while outwardly engaged in discussions or transactions with others, and talk to God." Francis died on December 28, 1622, and was Canonized on April 14, 1665. His last word of advice given to a nun was "Humility."
