FATHER'S CORNER - THE CREED - PART 8

By Fr Paul Wander

(Article 5) "and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures."

((Apostles Creed) "he descended into hell; on the third day re rose again from the dead."

"Descended into hell" hell in Hebrew Sheol in Greek Hades is the realm of the dead. In the New Testament it is not the realm of Satan, but of those who had died: people like Adam, Joseph, Abraham, and John the Baptist. Jesus went there as the Savior to preach the Good News. He did not go to the Damned but to those in the bosom of Abraham. (Lk 16:22-26). It is interesting that this phrase is not included in the Nicene Creed. Possibly because even by then people were being confused by the difference between the realm of the dead, for the just, and the realm of the dead for the damned.

"and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures" The same Jesus who died rose again from the realm of the dead. This is the crowning truth of our faith. Jesus fulfilled all the Scriptures - the Old Testament prophecies and the new Testament proclamation of the Resurrection. The truth is shown by the empty tomb and the appearance of Christ after His Resurrection. It was believed and taught by the disciples who encountered the risen Christ. It is still a mystery. No human saw the Resurrection happen, only the results. Jesus was in the tomb when He rose and no living human was in there watching, and no video camera filming it. The Resurrection transcends and surpasses history; the apparitions of Christ by the Apostles and others after the Resurrection make it an acknowledgement of historical fact. (CCC643). Christ is the First Born from the Dead (Col 1:18). This is the principle of own resurrection, even now the justification of our souls (Rom 6:4). As the angel said, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen." (Lk 24:5-6).

Thank you! Michael Forsmann and his family would like to thank this wonderful church community for the group Rosary that was prayed for Michael and for all the heartfelt prayers offered for a successful surgery. About a week after his surgery Michael suffered quite a setback with Posterior Fossa Syndrome but with continued prayers and therapy he is now back home. Michael will continue to work towards full recovery. We are so grateful for your continued love, support & prayers. What a wonderful community!

Thank you to all who helped last Sunday at the Assumption Parish Dinner & Raffle. It was a very delicious meal and a nice crowd to visit with. A good time was had by all.

You are invited to bring photographs of your deceased loved ones and place them on the Sanctuary Steps in front of the Altar during the month of November, the month of All Souls.

Question of the Week:
Are all the spirits roaming the earth bad?
No, Absolutely not! It is true that Satan and the Fallen Angels can and do roam the earth tempting us to sin. But, so also the Angels from Heaven roam the earth to guide us to resist temptation of the evil ones. Angels, like our Guardian Angels, influence us to do good and protect us. And there are spirits of people sent by God in apparistions, dreams and visions to guide us. Father Paul
